At a young age, Allen's parents were advised for his health to take him to a dryer climate in Phoenix, Arizona where he spent many years of his life before later moving to Mississippi in the early 90's. He was a high school graduate of Carl Hayden High School in Phoenix. After graduation, he enlisted in the United States Air Force. Early in his enlistment, he sadly suffered an injury that disabled him for life and he later qualified for Disabled Veteran status in which he remained for the rest of his life. As a young adult, he enjoyed making model airplanes. Later in life, and for many years, he had a passion for souping up cars and trucks, loved his Classic Rock-N-Roll, and also had an interest in watching Warren Miller's Snowriding / Snowboarding on TV. He is preceded in death by his Father Chester Sepanski, Mother Maude Troemmler, uncles Frederick and George Troemmler, and his aunts Margaret Simione, Edith Bonam, and Nancy King.
