“ Today would have been your 38th birthday and instead of cake and presents I can only leave flowers on a grave. Oh, sister right after you went to heaven God gave me so many wonderful memories. The one where you dropped the can on your big toe and mom kissed your bobo for a month. If only mom could have still kissed bobo's away life would be so good. Now I'm left with only memories some not so good. But for every bad memory there are 100 good ones to cherish. Our trips to Taco Bell for your specially made mexican pizza. Our dance parties on You tube when we would take turns being Tina on the song "Proud Mary". Oh I will miss those times so much. And the last video you showed us Green Beans, Potatoes, Tomatoes when you laughed so hard playing it over and over. The last time I saw you it was Thanksgiving. This holiday has taken on a new meaning for me now. I'm thankful that you were my baby girl for almost 38 years. I'm thankful for your precious children you left in my care. I will always have you with me through them. One day we will be together again and oh what a dance party we will have. I am so blessed to have had you in my life and I will miss you everyday. Mom

She has left too soon but has left with us Conner , Charleigh and wonderful memories to share with them . May we all love her children and family and never forget her ! “ I don't even know where to begin. I am at a loss for words. It doesn't seem real. My family will never have their Aunt Izzy anymore.. my husband will never have his sister to do impressions for, and laugh hysterically with. Why someone would do this to such a happy, lighthearted soul I have no idea. I just hope she is at peace. She went too soon. I know she missed her daddy and Mimi more than anything, and I hope they are together now. She loved her babies with all her heart, and all I ever heard her say was she just wanted to be with her babies. She had a rough road, that she did not deserve to go down. Oh how I wish you would have just stayed here. We love you, forever and always. Rest In Peace, because you had little here. Ashy-poo, Reese's pieces, pookie, and your sweet Ro will miss you dearly. Oh how happy I am you came and visited my sweet babies before this tragedy. My mom, or as you called her "momma" will surely miss your visits too. As we always said instead of goodbye, love ya girlfriend! I'll keep playing some good tunes for you girl!

“ I was a part of Lindsay's life around the time she had Conner. Me and her went through a 3 month phlebotomy class together in 2000. She was the 2nd highest average in the class. Very smart. My prayer is that she has found the peace she deserved. I hope her babies know how much she loved them. I will remember how sweet of a person she was.

“ It is hard to believe that I have lost my oldest granddaughter Lindsay I will miss you so much, I will remember the good times like the day you called Paw Paw Charlie and told him you were going to name your little girl after him he was real sick in the hospital but he smiled and said that is sweet. I remember the last time you were here just a few weeks before the terrible tragedy we talked a lot and I told you I loved you and you said I love you too grandmother. I know you and your daddy are in God's arms I know I will be with you again Love grandmother. Lucille Foster

“ I am at a loss for words, I honestly still can't believe it. Lindsay gave us our precious Connor and we have always been grateful for this gift of life. He has always been so smart and we always told him that he got it from her. She was loved unconditionally and completely by her children. My prayer is that she has at last found peace.

“ My niece was a very special person loved by me, my mother (her grandmother) and our entire family. We cherish those times we spent with her through the years and recently too. We all had such great conversations!!! She was such fun. My brother loved her dearly, as well as, my father too. I can only imagine the conversation they are having in Heaven now!!! She will be missed by us all. May she have the sweet peace she deserves. Love you, Lindsay. Aunt Krystal.
