She started out working for SRH, but then tried her hand at travel nursing in 2000. She loved to travel and be on the go. She was looking forward to her upcoming trip to Hawaii this summer. She loved the beach, sound of the waves, spending time with her grand-kids and watching after her great grand-baby, Legend. He was her baby-darling, they were best buddies and loved taking naps in her chair together.

Someone else who brought out happiness in her was her companion Dennis Mergenschroer. They loved spending time with each other, as they would go everywhere together. She was so excited to talk about their upcoming trip to Hawaii. They really were like teenagers in love. She is preceded in death by her parents, Faulk & Laura May Pierce, her husband, Marvin Davis, her grandson, Jacob Duke and her daughter in law Brandy Mahar Davis.
